

BRIDGE THE GAP

Between your education and your future

PSA is currently accepting applications.

How to Apply

Submit an application (which can be found at www.psa.gov), resume, and proof of current academic enrollment by mail, fax, or e-mail to:

The Pretrial Services Agency for the District of Columbia
633 Indiana Avenue NW, Suite 1120
Washington, DC 20004
Attention: Internship Coordinator
Fax: 202-442-1795
E-mail: PSA.Internship@psa.gov

If you have any questions, please contact Lauren Pinto, 202-442-1790.

Deadline for Applications:

Fall: July 15th
Spring: December 1st
Summer: April 1st

Internship Opportunities with the DC Pretrial Services Agency

PSA's mission is to assess, supervise, and provide services for defendants, and collaborate with the justice community, to assist the courts in making pretrial release decisions. We promote community safety and return to court while honoring the constitutional presumption of innocence.

Interns gain valuable experience in:

- Conducting pretrial interviews
- Assisting in the supervision of defendants released in the community
- Referring defendants to appropriate social service organizations
- Community counseling and/or forensic psychology

Depending upon on current needs, internship positions may also be available in our Office of Information Technology, Finance and Administration, Research, Analysis and Development, and/or Human Capital Management.

Internships are unpaid positions. Interns in the Fall or Spring Programs must be receiving academic credit.

Accountability

Community

Justice